

are some documented sites on ATK Launch Systems (formerly Thiokol Corporation) property about which information is extremely sparse and on BLM land.

Table 3.3. Previously Documented Sites Located near the Golden Spike National Historic Site
Site No.	Description	Other Information
42BO12	Connor Springs Petroglyph Site - Archaic and Fremont styles present.	On ATK Launch Systems property.
42BO17	Prehistoric rockshelter/cave.	On private lands. Site had been vandalized.
42BO129	Prehistoric rockshelter/cave and pictograph site. Pictograph panels have anthropomorphic figures, lines and dots.	On private lands. Site has been vandalized.
42BO175	Prehistoric rockshelter/cave - no artifacts noted, but the roof of the shelter is blackened and charcoal was noted.	On ATK Launch Systems property.
42BO176	Prehistoric rockshelter/cave - obsidian flakes were noted	On ATK Launch Systems property. Site has been vandalized and destroyed.
42BO177	Open lithic scatter - located at a spring at the Evan's Ranch.	Exact location unknown, could be private property or ATK Launch Systems property.
42BO386	Prehistoric rock art - anthropomorphic petroglyph figures.	On ATK Launch Systems property.
42BO527	Historic box culvert on the Transcontinental Railroad at the intersection of Hwy 83 with Golden Spike Drive.	Documented in 1987- Information located in State of Utah's Historic Site/Structure records; BLM.
42BO542	Historic railroad siding or construction camp - 5 depressions, artifacts dating to 1869-1929.	On private property.
42BO597	Prehistoric rockshelter/overhang - artifacts noted include 1 Great Salt Lake Gray ceramic and 4 Shoshone ware sherds.	On ATK Launch Systems property.
42BO805	Prehistoric and historic Rockshelters.	NPS lands - recorded 1994 Brooke Arkush.
42BO806	Rock shelter/construction worker camp.	NPS lands - recorded 1994 Brooke Arkush.
42BO821	Historic concrete foundation and debris at unnamed spring. The site is believed not to be associated with the railroad.	BLM lands; site recommended as not eligible for the National Register.
42BO955	Two prehistoric rockshelters with two rock art panels - anthropomorphic figures and curvilinear style.	On ATK Launch Systems property. This site has been vandalized.