Congressional Proceedings.

Mr.올은, the unfortunate report of the committee on the subject of the "Columbus Report," is the subject of the present debate. Mr. Olson stated that he was in favor of the report, and that he would vote for it. However, the report was not adopted by the House.

DEBATE ON THE MISSOURI BILL.

Mr. MOORE on the Missouri bill. This bill was introduced by Mr. MOORE, who stated that he had prepared a report on the subject, and that he would vote for it. However, the debate on the Missouri bill was not concluded.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. TADDO (Representative from New Jersey) on the subject of the "Columbus Report." He stated that he was in favor of the report, and that he would vote for it. However, the report was not adopted by the House.

The bill was finally passed by the House, and was sent to the Senate for consideration.

No. 3983.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, February 29, 1820.

NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

Vol. XXI.

Mr. TADDO (Representative from New Jersey) on the subject of the "Columbus Report." He stated that he was in favor of the report, and that he would vote for it. However, the report was not adopted by the House.

The bill was finally passed by the House, and was sent to the Senate for consideration.

The Senate concurred in the passage of the bill, and it was then sent to the President for his signature.

The President signed the bill, and it became law.
COMMUNICATION.

TO THE COUNTRY.

Gentlemen:—A large audience, consisting of a number of citizens, attended the meeting of the African Association, at the Baptist Church, on Saturday last, to hear the address of Mr. C. G. Finley, who delivered an able and interesting discourse, on the subject of the colonization of Africa. The address was received with great applause, and was followed by a series of questions, which were answered by Mr. F. H. W. C. G. The meeting adjourned at a late hour, after the adjournment of the next meeting, which will be held on the first Monday of every month, at the usual place.

We understand from the reduction of the African population of the United States, that the number of the population of the United States, at the last census, was 35,000,000, the reduction being 3,000,000, or 8.5 per cent. The reduction of the African population of the United States, at the last census, was 35,000,000, the reduction being 3,000,000, or 8.5 per cent. The reduction of the African population of the United States, at the last census, was 35,000,000, the reduction being 3,000,000, or 8.5 per cent.

PENNY ROBBERY.

And not only the negroes, but many of the free negroes, who have been emancipated, are now in the same situation, and are living in a state of slavery, and are subjected to all the outrages of the slaveholders. The free negroes, who have been emancipated, are now in the same situation, and are living in a state of slavery, and are subjected to all the outrages of the slaveholders. The free negroes, who have been emancipated, are now in the same situation, and are living in a state of slavery, and are subjected to all the outrages of the slaveholders.

The negroes, who have been emancipated, are now in the same situation, and are living in a state of slavery, and are subjected to all the outrages of the slaveholders. The free negroes, who have been emancipated, are now in the same situation, and are living in a state of slavery, and are subjected to all the outrages of the slaveholders.