WASHINGTON.

Erected Beane, Eng., is appointed Secretary from the State of Connecticut, in the Congress of the United States, for the term of six years, beginning the term of the late Senator W. F. Marcy, to the seat of service in the 2d of March next.

The following communication is from a respectable source, and the facts are usually told by a trustworthy man. It is of a nature which the natural course of events would naturally have led us to expect from our enemies. But, we have treated already on occasion more than once, the subject of war, and cannot avoid saying that it has been a month of anxiety about it, to be regarded as a private concern. Indeed, in our opinion, the public at large are now prepared for what is to come.

The first step being taken by our friends on the 7th of March, the English have also taken an active part in the war. The English have, in fact, been the first to act.

The English have, in fact, been the first to act.
