WASHINGTON, May 3.

The bill for laying duties on certain sides at Ararat, which has been the subject of anxious disquisition in various quarters, has been reported in that body, by a small majority, in favor of the proposed rates. The importance of the question was considered, and it is important that the attention of the world should be directed against the bill. It is understood that there has been no delay in the matter of sales, and that the duty is to be paid immediately.
