DEBATE ON THE MISSOURI BILL.

In the House of Representatives.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I have the honor to present to the House the following report from the Committee on the Missouri bill, and to move its adoption.

Mr. Adams, in answer to a question of the Speaker, said, that the committee had not been able to complete the report of the Missouri bill before the adjournment of Congress; but they had been able to make a report of the bill of 1820, and that report was now ready for the House.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.

Mr. Adams. Mr. President, I rise to move the adoption of the report of the Committee on the Missouri bill.

Mr. Adams then proceeded to read the report of the committee, and the bill of 1820, which he had before the House.

The House adjourned.
DEBATE ON THE MISSOURI BILL.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

February 14, 1819.

BREACH OF THE CONTINUING OF THE BILL.

Mr. Hamilton, of Pennsylvania, submitted the question as follows:

Mr. Chairman, I will submit a few of the objections that have been made against this bill, and I trust in doing so, will laid before the House the only objections that can be made to it.

The bill contains the provisions of the act of 1810, and it is only a continuation of that act. The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.

The act of 1810 has been in force for ten years, and it has been in operation for that length of time. The objections that have been made to this bill are not objections to the act of 1810, but they are objections to the provisions of that act. The provisions of that act are in the bill, and they are only continued in the bill.
WASHINGTON.

Tuesday, June 27.

Appointed to the Senate on the 23d inst. at Philadelphia, Thomas Jay, agent, and John Buander, agent as Vice President. We understand the Senate are not presenting any new business of any kind. The Senate is in session at the same time, but no business is transacted. Our intercourse with the Senate is not more than formal, and nothing is done except the usual business of the Senate.

The Senate-Senate, by a vote of 31 yeas to 20 nays, passed the bill to put all the public lands of Nebraska into the hands of the United States, for the purpose of selling them to the citizens of the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The House-House, by a vote of 21 yeas to 19 nays, passed the bill to create a new state in the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The President-The President appointed J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of New York, and J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of Boston.

The Secretary-The Secretary of the Treasury, J. T. D., issued the following orders for the payment of the following sums:

1. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $10,000.
2. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $5,000.
3. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $3,000.
4. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $2,000.
5. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $1,000.

The Senate-Senate, by a vote of 31 yeas to 20 nays, passed the bill to put all the public lands of Nebraska into the hands of the United States, for the purpose of selling them to the citizens of the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The House-House, by a vote of 21 yeas to 19 nays, passed the bill to create a new state in the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The President-The President appointed J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of New York, and J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of Boston.

The Secretary-The Secretary of the Treasury, J. T. D., issued the following orders for the payment of the following sums:

1. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $10,000.
2. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $5,000.
3. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $3,000.
4. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $2,000.
5. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $1,000.

The Senate-Senate, by a vote of 31 yeas to 20 nays, passed the bill to put all the public lands of Nebraska into the hands of the United States, for the purpose of selling them to the citizens of the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The House-House, by a vote of 21 yeas to 19 nays, passed the bill to create a new state in the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The President-The President appointed J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of New York, and J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of Boston.

The Secretary-The Secretary of the Treasury, J. T. D., issued the following orders for the payment of the following sums:

1. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $10,000.
2. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $5,000.
3. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $3,000.
4. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $2,000.
5. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $1,000.

The Senate-Senate, by a vote of 31 yeas to 20 nays, passed the bill to put all the public lands of Nebraska into the hands of the United States, for the purpose of selling them to the citizens of the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The House-House, by a vote of 21 yeas to 19 nays, passed the bill to create a new state in the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The President-The President appointed J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of New York, and J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of Boston.

The Secretary-The Secretary of the Treasury, J. T. D., issued the following orders for the payment of the following sums:

1. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $10,000.
2. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $5,000.
3. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $3,000.
4. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $2,000.
5. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $1,000.

The Senate-Senate, by a vote of 31 yeas to 20 nays, passed the bill to put all the public lands of Nebraska into the hands of the United States, for the purpose of selling them to the citizens of the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The House-House, by a vote of 21 yeas to 19 nays, passed the bill to create a new state in the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The President-The President appointed J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of New York, and J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of Boston.

The Secretary-The Secretary of the Treasury, J. T. D., issued the following orders for the payment of the following sums:

1. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $10,000.
2. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $5,000.
3. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $3,000.
4. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $2,000.
5. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $1,000.

The Senate-Senate, by a vote of 31 yeas to 20 nays, passed the bill to put all the public lands of Nebraska into the hands of the United States, for the purpose of selling them to the citizens of the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The House-House, by a vote of 21 yeas to 19 nays, passed the bill to create a new state in the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The President-The President appointed J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of New York, and J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of Boston.

The Secretary-The Secretary of the Treasury, J. T. D., issued the following orders for the payment of the following sums:

1. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $10,000.
2. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $5,000.
3. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $3,000.
4. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $2,000.
5. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $1,000.

The Senate-Senate, by a vote of 31 yeas to 20 nays, passed the bill to put all the public lands of Nebraska into the hands of the United States, for the purpose of selling them to the citizens of the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The House-House, by a vote of 21 yeas to 19 nays, passed the bill to create a new state in the United States, and for the purpose of raising money for the support of the government.

The President-The President appointed J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of New York, and J. M. B. as Collector of the Port of Boston.

The Secretary-The Secretary of the Treasury, J. T. D., issued the following orders for the payment of the following sums:

1. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $10,000.
2. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $5,000.
3. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $3,000.
4. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $2,000.
5. To the Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $1,000.