WASHINGTON, February 21.

The Senate did not act on Tuesday. The House of Representatives took up the consideration of the Senate's bill to make permanent the revenue laws, but were absent entirely excepted in discussion on the bill. The discussion on the bill is expected to resume on Wednesday. The Senate is expected to act on the bill on Thursday, and to adjourn the session on Friday.

A letter from Philadelphia to a gentleman was received in this city which states that the committee appointed by the Legislature to examine the revenue charges against the Governor of the State have reported, which completes the business of the session.

The Senate did not act on Tuesday. The House of Representatives took up the consideration of the Senate's bill to make permanent the revenue laws, but were absent entirely excepted in discussion on the bill. The discussion on the bill is expected to resume on Wednesday. The Senate is expected to act on the bill on Thursday, and to adjourn the session on Friday.

The letter states that the committee appointed by the Legislature to examine the revenue charges against the Governor of the State have reported, which completes the business of the session.
WASHINGTON.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

IN THE SENATE.

MR. DOUGLASS, of the Mohawk Valley, read a resolution of the House of Representatives, in the preamble of which he speaks of the threats of Mr. Slocum, and of the House of Representatives in considering the measure, and requests the Senate to consider the question.

The Senate referred the resolution to the Committee on the Conduct of the War.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Bingham, of Connecticut, gave notice of a resolution, to be reported on tomorrow, directing the President of the United States to issue an order for the arrest of Mr. Slocum, and to send him to Congress for trial.

The House adjourned.

MR. DOUGLASS, of the Mohawk Valley, gave notice of a resolution, to be reported on tomorrow, directing the President of the United States to issue an order for the arrest of Mr. Slocum, and to send him to Congress for trial.

The House adjourned.

THE HUSBAND'S NIGHT BALL.

The House adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Bingham, of Connecticut, gave notice of a resolution, to be reported on tomorrow, directing the President of the United States to issue an order for the arrest of Mr. Slocum, and to send him to Congress for trial.

The House adjourned.

IN THE SENATE.

Mr. Slocum, of the Mohawk Valley, gave notice of a resolution, to be reported on tomorrow, directing the President of the United States to issue an order for the arrest of Mr. Slocum, and to send him to Congress for trial.

The Senate adjourned.

THE HUSBAND'S NIGHT BALL.

The House adjourned.