

N. B. ATWOOD,
DRUGGIST & APOTHECARY,

No. 74 North Second street, (nearly opposite the Monroe House,)

Sign—a Golden Mortar resting upon a Pillar.

Has on hand, and will be receiving from time to time, all articles of Drugs &c., that may be wanted for the city and country trade. The fire having consumed my stock at No. 6, opposite the Old Market, I solicit the patronage of my former customers, with the assurance, that my stock is fresh. Two articles claim your particular attention—the Indian's Panacea for Purifying the System of all Impurities, and Rushton & Aspinwall's Fever and Ague Tonic, both having certificates of remarkable cures.

N.B. My branch Drug store is at No. 3 Chouteau's Row, east side, and facing the Mississippi River.

ENGINES & MACHINERY.

M. & W. HUNT,

North Main street, opposite the Shot Tower,

Manufacture Grist and Saw Mill Machinery, and all sorts of Engine work generally.

St. Louis, August, 1849.

J. S. DUNHAM,

Manufacturer of Friction Matches and Inks,

Hazel street, between Third and Fourth,

.....

St. Louis.

These Matches, for sureness and safety, are not surpassed by any in use. Warranted to stand the test of any climate, and not become impaired by long keeping.

S. B. FLINT & Co.,

CABINET MAKERS,

And Dealers in

Furniture, Feathers & Upholsterers' Materials,

No. 81, Market street, St. Louis, Mo.